HKU Science Distinguished Alumni Honored at Faculty of Science 70th Anniversary Dinner

On the occasion of its Platinum Jubilee, the Faculty of Science of The University of Hong Kong, is proud to honor its outstanding alumni with contributions to science education, research and society, or with significant achievements in his or her own profession. The Award Presentation Ceremony will be held during the 70th Anniversary Dinner to be held on Sunday November 15, 2009. Over 800 guests, alumni, students and staff members will attend and share the joy of the recipients.

The Faculty always regards its alumni the most valuable asset. We are also proud of them for their unstinting support, and their commitment and contributions to society. Professor Sun Kwok, Dean of Science said, "While saluting the 43 Distinguished Alumni, we also hope our students and future generations will be enlightened and learn from these role models – their dedication to their professions, their strong leadership and generosity."

The Faculty is pleased to announce the list of awardees for Distinguished Alumni as follows (in alphabetical order):

The Anniversary Dinner, to be officiated by Dr the Honourable Leong Che-hung, Chairman of Council, Professor Lap-Chee Tsui, Vice Chancellor and President of HKU, and Professor S Kwok, Dean of Science, is the grand finale of a year of celebration activities. It is also an opportunity for alumni to rekindle ties with fellow graduates of different generations.

Apart from celebration and reminiscence, the Faculty is pleased to share with alumni and the community celebration activities throughout the year. More information on the 70th Anniversary is available at www.hku.hk/science/70th/

For enquiries, please contact Ms Cindy Chan, Communication Manager, Faculty of Science at 2241 5286 / 6356 5626 / Email: cindycst@hku.hk.
