CHAN WAI MAN

陳慧敏

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

Civil Servant

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

Thanks God for granting me the opportunity to serve in the AA Council and Alumnae Choir, which I experienced, sisterhood, friendship, love, care, unity and shared sense of belonging to YW. Humbly looking forward to serving my alma mater and the YW family again in the coming term of AA.

YEAR OF GRADUATION

2005 S5

IP KA HEI

葉嘉希

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

Deputy Business Development Director

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

I served as a Council Member of the YWGSAA from 2019 to 2023. After taking a break during the last term to care for my newborn daughter, I am eager to re-engage with YWGSAA. My strong sense of belonging to the YWGS community was shaped during my time as the Chairlady of the Student Association.

Throughout my tenure as a council member, I was involved in various initiatives, including souvenir sales and promotions and several large events. Additionally, I took on the role of administrator for YWGS's social media platforms (Instagram and Facebook), where I successfully drove the social media strategy for major school projects, such as the 125th Anniversary Dinner and "To My 19-Year-Old Self."

I have recently transitioned from an international commercial law firm to the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre. My new role will be focusing more on promoting Hong Kong globally in the dispute resolution sector. My extensive business development and marketing background, combined with my passion for social media and event management, positions me to effectively contribute to the YWGSAA by implementing impactful programs and events.

YEAR OF GRADUATION

KOO ON KI

顧安琪

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

Education

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

I am honored to be considered for the opportunity to contribute to my alma mater, YWGS, and support the meaningful work of the Alumnae Association.

During my time at Ying Wa, I actively contributed as volleyball team leader, choir member, prefect and Chairlady of the Program Committee. In 2025, I completed docent training, equipping me to share Ying Wa's rich history and values. After 16 rewarding years managing executive programs at CUHK and HKUST, I transitioned into a new role and currently serve as administrator for an undergraduate program, focusing on marketing, admissions, and student advising.

With deep ties to Ying Wa and professional expertise, I am eager to support the Alumnae Association's efforts and contribute to its meaningful initiatives.

LAM KIN YAN DOBY

林建欣

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

Administrative Executive

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

Graduated in 1991, stayed with YWGS for 5 years. Have to confess that I did not get touch or involved with YW for years.

Until recent years, having more collaboration with old girls, recalling those good memories when I was with YW. So now, I would like to contribute some minor effort to YW.

Working in office administration field for years, probably I am good at handling ad hoc tasks, repetitive and trivial stuffs.

Because my working hours are rather regular, I'm learning flute in the evening of Thursdays. Helping me to relax and keep the momentum.

LEE SUET YEE JESSICA

李雪怡

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

Finance

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

Back in my student days in Ying Wa, I served as the Chairlady of the Programme Committee in the Student Association and was a member of the School Choir. These experiences fostered my leadership abilities and a strong sense of belonging to our school community. Professionally, I hold CPA and CFA qualifications and currently work in the finance industry. I had the honor to serve in the council for the past three terms. YWGSAA is truly a warm and inspiring big family. I am excited about the opportunity to further serve our alma mater with my profession and passion.

YEAR OF GRADUATION

2002 S5

LEUNG HOI KEI

梁凱琪

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

Asset Management, Senior Manager

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

I graduated from YWGS in 2004, and I have some wonderful memories from my time there, especially serving as the Captain of Jenkins

House in 2003. That experience really shaped my interpersonal skills and allowed me to make great friendships.

Currently, I work as an Asset Manager for a Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT). I enjoy what I do in the real estate industry, focusing on asset management and planning, real estate appraisal, facility management, and operations.

I'm also an EFFAS Certified ESG Analyst and a member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors.

I've really enjoyed being part of the YWGSAA community over the years and have attended many events. I'm excited about the chance to contribute even more by becoming a council member. Looking forward to connecting with everyone!

YEAR OF GRADUATION

MOO SHUET CHING

毛雪貞

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

Education

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

I have had the privilege of serving as a council member of YWGSAA for the past six years (2018-2025). In the previous term, as a vice-president and a part of the organizing committee for the 125th Gala Dinner, I experienced significant growth in both personal and professional. Working with alumnae from various fields was incredibly enriching and the success of the dinner highlighted the commitment and passion for our school shared by all those involved. I will remain committed to dedicating my time and effort to YW and embodying the spirit of "to serve and not to be served".

NG KA YING

吳家櫻

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

CPA (Practising)

YEAR OF GRADUATION

2000 S5

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

I graduated from Ying Wa back in 2002 and during my secondary school life, I have participated in various activities, such as being a committee member of the Student Association as well as a member of the School Choir. I currently work as an accountant, and I hope to use my knowledge to serve in the AA. I also hope to connect with other members of the Ying Wa family and live out the spirit of 'to serve and not to be served'.

YEAR OF GRADUATION

2009 S5

SHUM LAI FAN IVY

岑麗芬

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

Entrepreneur

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

I had my best years in Ying Wa from Form 1 to Form 5, before studying abroad. I graduated from University College London (BSc Economics) and Imperial College London (MSc Management).

Basketball was my sole passion during the time in Ying Wa and I used to represent the School and Hong Kong SAR Youth team.

The coming year, I wish to contribute to Ying Wa by injecting new energy to AA COUNCIL, connecting with all the old and current girls!

YEAR OF GRADUATION

2001 S5

TANG SZE MAN JANICE

鄧詩敏

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

Information Technology

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

As a graduate of the class of 2001, I've always been fascinated by the incredibly strong bond that connects us all. It reminds me a bit of my love for sailing – the way a crew works together, harnessing the wind to reach a common goal. That same sense of teamwork and shared purpose is something I deeply value. In these rapidly changing and often challenging times, nurturing our unique connection is more vital than ever. Like running alongside friends towards a finish line, I believe we can achieve great things when we collaborate. I am putting myself forward for the council because I am eager to contribute actively, working together to ensure the enduring legacy and sustainability of our cherished YW spirits for future generations.

TSO WING SHAN LINDA

曹穎珊

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

Civil Servant

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

Hello mates, I am Linda Tso, nice to meet you all. After seven years in Ying Wa, I studied in The Chinese University of Hong Kong, majoring in Government and Public Administration and later got a Master's degree in Criminology at The University of Hong Kong. Apart from a few years in Labour and Fire Services, I am now working in the transport planning and management field. I like networking with people from different walks of life and working with people as a team. We can always learn and synergize with one another. I also love travelling, reading and having some great time with my family, friends and my three dogs. Life is fun!

YEAR OF GRADUATION

2005 S5

YAU CHING YI

邱靜宜

CAREER / OCCUPATION:

Manager
(International non-profit organization)

SELF-INTRODUCTION:

I graduated from Ying Wa(Form 7) in 2007. After that, I pursued my studies in the School of Communications at Hong Kong Baptist University. Over the years, I have built a career in international humanitarian and development organizations, including UNICEF, Action Education, and currently, Save the Children. My expertise lies in communications, public relations, media relations, fundraising, and donor relationship management.

During my time at Ying Wa, I was actively involved in various extracurricular activities, serving as the captain of the badminton team, vice-captain of Hogben House, and participating in the orienteering club and school choir. I wish to give back to my old school by leveraging my experiences through the alumnae association and I look forward to reconnecting with fellow alumnae and contributing to our school's future.
