Brief Introductory Statement

Amy brings over more than twenty years of legal expertise to her role as an Executive Director and Senior Counsel at Goldman Sachs, where she advises its Asia Private Wealth Management division. Her practice focuses on structured transactions, strategic business initiatives and financial regulatory compliance.

Prior to her tenure at Goldman Sachs which began in 2015, she practised as a solicitor at Clifford Chance in both Hong Kong and London, with a focus on establishment of private equity funds and hedge funds and advising on complex financial regulatory frameworks.

Amy holds a BBA(Law) and LLB with First Class Honours from the University of Hong Kong in 2005 and 2006 respectively. She is dual-qualified to practise law as a solicitor in both Hong Kong and England and Wales.

Outside of her legal practice, Amy is actively engaged in her community as a member of the North Point Alliance Church and is a dedicated mother to her three children.
