Brief Introductory Statement

Janet Chung has close to twenty years of experience in the financial industry. Currently, she is the Vice President of Corporate Finance for JPMorgan Chase & Co., overseeing the financial management of the Human Resources function across the APAC and EMEA regions. She also drives the communications strategy to ensure the group messages are consistently communicated within the function in all the countries.

Prior to joining JPMorgan in 2017, Ms. Chung had worked at Hong Kong Exchanges & Clearing Limited (HKEX) for ten years. She led the Investor Relations function for the Group from 2015 to 2017 and had been closely involved in the acquisition of the London Metal Exchange and the subsequent integration from 2012 to 2015.

Ms. Chung completed the Ivey Executive MBA Program at the University of Western Ontario with company sponsorship in 2015. She also holds Bachelor of Science, Actuarial Science (First Class Honours) at the University of Hong Kong.

Ms. Chung has three children, aged 1.5, 9 and 10 respectively. Her family including herself are Christians and were baptized in Christ Church Kowloon Tong.
