Medal for Bravery (Bronze) (MBB)

Mr LEUNG Wai-kong

Principal Fireman Mr LEUNG is awarded the MBB in recognition of his act of gallantry displayed during the mountain rescue operation at Tiu Shau Ngam, Ma On Shan on 22 March 2017. The incident happened at a mountainous area without proper hiking paths. The operation was full of challenges because of the slippery, narrow and steep slopes with loose pebbles, as well as rainy and windy weather with close-to-zero visibility. Under such a highly risky situation, Mr LEUNG and his team members braved all their way through and proceeded to the hilltop to effect rescue of the stranded hikers in hours of darkness. Mr LEUNG assisted the Senior Station Officer in planning, organising and executing the rescue plan. He also worked with other crew members in rescuing the seriously injured Principal Fireman who had slipped off down a steep slope. Mr LEUNG has displayed great courage, professionalism and selflessness in a highly hazardous environment.

Mr FONG Chai-chuen

Fireman Mr FONG is awarded the MBB in recognition of his act of gallantry displayed during the mountain rescue operation at Tiu Shau Ngam, Ma On Shan on 22 March 2017. The incident happened at a mountainous area without proper hiking paths. The operation was full of challenges because of the slippery, narrow and steep slopes with loose pebbles, as well as rainy and windy weather with close-to-zero visibility. Despite the dangerous environment, Mr FONG and his team members crawled downhill from the hilltop with heavy equipment to effect immediate rescue operation. They overcame the adverse weather condition and the treacherous topography and set up rigging rope system in a steep cliff with thick bushes on both sides to convey the seriously injured Principal Fireman to the helicopter airlifting point. Mr FONG has displayed great courage, professionalism and selflessness in a highly hazardous environment.

Mr LI Wai-ming

Senior Station Officer Mr LI is awarded the MBB in recognition of his act of gallantry displayed during the mountain rescue operation at Tiu Shau Ngam, Ma On Shan on 22 March 2017. The incident happened at a mountainous area without proper hiking paths. The operation was full of challenges because of the slippery, narrow and steep slopes with loose pebbles, as well as rainy and windy weather with close-to-zero visibility. Under such a highly risky situation, Mr LI and his Principal Fireman partner took up the “explorer” role for about two hours and alerted the team members behind on any possible dangerous falling pebbles. Unfortunately with his Principal Fireman partner suddenly slipped off down a steep slope, Mr LI immediately dashed down by the rocky slopes to find him. Despite the dangerous environment, Mr LI made a decision and directed the team to convey the injured Principal Fireman from the steep slope by setting up rigging rope system to the helicopter airlifting point. Mr LI has displayed great courage, professionalism and selflessness in a highly hazardous environment.

Mr CHEUNG Kam-chuen

Fireman Mr CHEUNG is awarded the MBB in recognition of his act of gallantry displayed during the mountain rescue operation at Tiu Shau Ngam, Ma On Shan on 22 March 2017. The incident happened at a mountainous area without proper hiking paths. The operation was full of challenges because of the slippery, narrow and steep slopes with loose pebbles, as well as rainy and windy weather with close-to-zero visibility. Despite the dangerous environment, Mr CHEUNG and his team members crawled downhill from the hilltop with heavy equipment to effect immediate rescue operation. They overcame the adverse weather condition and the treacherous topography and set up rigging rope system in a steep cliff with thick bushes on both sides to convey the seriously injured Principal Fireman to the helicopter airlifting point. Mr CHEUNG has displayed great courage, professionalism and selflessness in a highly hazardous environment.

Mr LEUNG King-yin

Principal Fireman Mr LEUNG is awarded the MBB in recognition of his act of gallantry displayed during the mountain rescue operation at Tiu Shau Ngam, Ma On Shan on 21 to 22 March 2017. The incident happened at a mountainous area without proper hiking paths. The operation was full of challenges because of the slippery, narrow and steep slopes with loose pebbles, as well as rainy and windy weather with close-to-zero visibility. Mr LEUNG exemplified great courage and displayed outstanding leadership in leading his teammates to move forward across the extremely dangerous terrain to search for the two stranded hikers. They found the two stranded hikers at a ledge of about 300 metres below them. They attempted to approach the hikers bit by bit. With their unyielding efforts and reinforcement that arrived, the two stranded hikers were eventually led to the helicopter airlifting point along the steep cliffs. Mr LEUNG has displayed great courage, professionalism and selflessness in a highly hazardous environment.

Mr CHEN Yong-lun

A member of the public, Mr CHEN, is awarded the MBB in recognition of his act of gallantry displayed when assisting police officers in controlling an arrested person who tried to snatch police revolver while awaiting medication under the escort of two police officers at North District Hospital, Sheung Shui on 15 September 2014. Fearless of being shot, Mr CHEN was the first passer-by to offer assistance to the police officers by suppressing the hand of the arrested person. Despite hearing the sound of gunshots and noticing that the arrested person was holding a revolver, Mr CHEN did not let go of his hand and continued to suppress the hand of the arrested person. To prevent the arrested person from firing the revolver again, Mr CHEN brushed off the arrested person's hand off from the revolver. Subsequently, the arrested person was succumbed by Mr CHEN, the police officers and other persons. Mr CHEN has displayed great courage and selflessness in a life threatening situation.

Mr YEUNG Siu-fung

Fireman Mr YEUNG is awarded the MBB in recognition of his act of gallantry displayed during the mountain rescue operation at Tiu Shau Ngam, Ma On Shan on 21 to 22 March 2017. The incident happened at a mountainous area without proper hiking paths. The operation was full of challenges because of the slippery, narrow and steep slopes with loose pebbles, as well as rainy and windy weather with close-to-zero visibility. Mr YEUNG and his team members went downhill along the steep cliffs in hours of darkness to search and rescue the stranded hikers. They were the first ones to approach the hikers. They exemplified great courage in a dreadful situation and stood by at the hikers' position to maintain contact and comfort them throughout the entire operation. They overcame adverse weather condition and the treacherous topography and led the hikers to the helicopter airlifting point. Mr YEUNG has displayed great courage, professionalism and selflessness in a highly hazardous environment.

Mr LIU Wong-chung

Fireman Mr LIU is awarded the MBB in recognition of his act of gallantry displayed during the mountain rescue operation at Tiu Shau Ngam, Ma On Shan on 21 to 22 March 2017. The incident happened at a mountainous area without proper hiking paths. The operation was full of challenges because of the slippery, narrow and steep slopes with loose pebbles, as well as rainy and windy weather with close-to-zero visibility. Mr LIU and his team members went downhill along the steep cliffs in hours of darkness to search and rescue the stranded hikers. They were the first ones to approach the hikers. They exemplified great courage in a dreadful situation and stood by at the hikers' position to maintain contact and comfort them throughout the entire operation. They overcame adverse weather condition and the treacherous topography and led the hikers to the helicopter airlifting point. Mr LIU has displayed great courage, professionalism and selflessness in a highly hazardous environment.

Mr SO Wing-kwan

Fireman Mr SO is awarded the MBB in recognition of his act of gallantry displayed during the mountain rescue operation at Tiu Shau Ngam, Ma On Shan on 22 March 2017. The incident happened at a mountainous area without proper hiking paths. The operation was full of challenges because of the slippery, narrow and steep slopes with loose pebbles, as well as rainy and windy weather with close-to-zero visibility. Despite the dangerous environment, Mr SO and his team members crawled downhill from the hilltop with heavy equipment to effect immediate rescue operation. They overcame the adverse weather condition and the treacherous topography and set up rigging rope system in a steep cliff with thick bushes on both sides to convey the seriously injured Principal Fireman to the helicopter airlifting point. Mr SO has displayed great courage, professionalism and selflessness in a highly hazardous environment.
