More Information

Dr. Siu Wong Sau Fong Selina 蕭黃秀芳

Selina is a Professor Emerita of Social Work, Wheelock College, Boston, holds a doctoral degree in social welfare from Columbia University. Her practice and research interests include child welfare, developmental disabilities, and home-school partnerships. For 22 years she taught undergraduate and graduate social work courses at Wheelock College, serving as Director of the BSW Programme for 12 years and garnering awards for distinguished teaching and academic excellence. In 2005 she won the Greatest Contribution to Social Work Education award, given by the National Association of Social Workers (NASW), Massachusetts Chapter.

During her career she has held many leadership positions in state and national social work organizations. After her retirement, at the invitation of SIM University, Singapore's first and only private university, she designed a new BSW Programme that met accreditation standards set by the Singapore Association of Social Workers. For decades she has been active in Boston's Chinese community, conducting workshops on family life, cultural diversity, and immigrant issues.

While at Ying Wa she served as President of the Student Council in 1959-1960 and although she left Hong Kong in 1965, she has participated actively in her class activities as well as supported Ying Wa's fundraising and various celebrations.
